

2011 Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship Johnson Recognizes Outstanding Students

Timothy E. Johnson, Ph.D., Founder & President of Johnson Investment Counsel, Inc., presented the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship to two outstanding students, Sarah Bishop and Emily Mahler.

Sarah Bishop is the daughter of Client Support Associate, Lesa Bishop and husband, Jim. She will be attending The Ohio State University in the fall.

Emily Mahler is the daughter of Receptionist Jan Mahler and husband, Charlie. She is currently attending Miami University and will be a senior in the fall.

Johnson Investment Counsel (JIC) established the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship in remembrance of Patrick Chong, a Portfolio Manager Assistant at JIC, who died of colon cancer in 2002 at the age of 31. In his memory, JIC annually awards two $2,500 scholarships to children of Johnson Investment Counsel employees.

A committee of educators and administrators at the University of Cincinnati judges applicants on the basis of scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, community involvement and proven potential in college curriculum.
