Johnson Investment Counsel Names Holli Alexander Chief Operating Officer Experienced financial services industry veteran to manage firm operations

Cincinnati – Holli J. Alexander joined Johnson Investment Counsel as Chief Operating Officer Dec. 4, 2017. As a member of the firm’s Leadership Team, Alexander will oversee a variety of functions that will support the firm’s continued growth and development.

Alexander has more than 20 years of experience in business operations leadership, including strategic planning, execution, relationship management, and systems support. She has held executive positions at several financial services firms, most recently serving as Senior Relationship Manager for Schwab Advisor Services.

“As we continue to grow, the firm needs someone to help guide the day-to-day operation of our business,” said Jason Jackman, President, Johnson Investment Counsel. “Holli’s industry and business operations experience makes her a great fit for this role. We’re excited to have her join us and help enhance the firm’s operations as we serve more people through our growing regional presence.”

After earning a B.S. in business administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham, Alexander moved to Cincinnati where she spent more than 10 years at Fifth Third Bank, holding two vice president positions. After leaving Fifth Third, Alexander went on to hold senior vice president roles at Huntington Investment Company and Citizens Financial Group before taking her most recent job at Schwab.

“It’s an honor to help lead a firm with the reputation that Johnson Investment Counsel has,” Alexander said. “With a fantastic group of talented, dedicated professionals, Johnson is in a great position to build on its success to expand its reach throughout Ohio and beyond.”
