JASON JACKMAN TO SPEAK AT FEG 2017 INVESTMENT FORUM PANEL

Johnson Investment Counsel President to discuss committee governance with non-profit leaders

Cincinnati – Johnson Investment Counsel President Jason Jackman will be speaking at FEG 2017 Investment Forum Aug. 28 – 30 in Cincinnati. Hosted by Fund Evaluation Group, LLC (FEG), the event was established in 2009, after the financial crisis, to give clients and guests a deeper understanding of the forces that shape financial markets and drive investment results.

“It’s great to be able to share insights with other talented colleagues at this event,” Jackman said. “FEG’s Investment Forum is a great opportunity to speak to other professionals and network with institutional investors across the nation.”

Jackman’s session, “A Guide to Better Governance” will explore Board governance—including challenges and investment pitfalls, the importance of diverse thought, and effective tools to develop an effective committee process, and will be offered on both days of the event.

The FEG Investment Forum is an invitation-only event, and in 2016, attracted nearly 500 attendees, primarily executives, board members and investment professionals from nonprofits and corporations from across the country. More information about the event is available at www.feg.com/2017-forum.

Johnson Investment Counsel’s Institutional Management division has a long history of providing exceptional service to a variety of non-profit organizations, and currently manages $2.7 million in assets.
