Johnson Investment Counsel Recognizes Outstanding Students

Jason Jackman, CFA, Chief Executive Officer of Johnson Investment Counsel, presented the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship to two outstanding students, Melina Busken and Gretchen Phelps.

Melina Busken is the daughter of Trust Counsel Alethea Teh Busken, Esq. She is an incoming Freshman at Brigham Young University pursuing a major in Environmental Science.

Gretchen Phelps is the daughter of Client Support Assistant, Amanada Wallace. She is an incoming freshman at the University of Tennessee. She is pursuing a major in Kinesiology and hopes to study physical therapy post-graduation.

Johnson Investment Counsel established the Patrick Chong Memorial Scholarship in remembrance of Patrick Chong, a Portfolio Manager Assistant at JIC, who died of colon cancer in 2002 at the age of 31. In his memory, JIC annually awards two $3,500 scholarships to children of Johnson Investment Counsel employees.

A committee of educators and administrators at the University of Cincinnati judges applicants on the basis of scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, community involvement, and proven potential in college curriculum.
